EXTRACURRICULAR BANQUET & AWARDS

WCHS celebrates with a WCHS extracurricular banquet!

Although the emphasis of WCHS is always on academic success of its students, we all know that participation of students in activities outside of their coursework is vitally important to student development. We are celebrating the contributions of volunteer staff, community members and parents together with the outstanding participation of our students. The event is to be held on Monday, June 11th at the school. Invited guests include those who participated in or contributed to the success of our extracurricular programs.

Along with a supper, participants will be served up an opportunity to revisit the successes of our year, recognize the students who will receive awards, and enjoy the company of others who recognize the value of these programs.

Invitations will be sent out and RSVPs will be necessary to attend.

Biology 20 Field Study - X-Stream Science

The WCHS Science Department is excited to announce that this year for the Biology 20 field study students will be participating in the Battle River Watershed Alliance's (BRWA) X-Stream Science Program.

X-Stream Science is an inquiry-based learning opportunity lead by local experts to connect students to their watershed through real world science. Students will be travelling to Coal Lake where they will collect biological, chemical and physical data on the water and surrounding land. Water quality, quantity and land use data is collected, analyzed and stored to be monitored and compared over time. This data will help students and decision makers make good choices to help our watersheds.

May 30 Afternoon - Field Study - Jorgensen's Class (Period 3)
