

JOURNEY ENGLISH/LANGUAGE ARTS/ FRENCH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

COURSE SEQUENCE - ENGLISH/FRENCH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

English 10-1

5 credits

This course is an introduction to language and literature in high school. The expectation is that students taking 10-1 have strong reading and communication skills as well as an interest in English language arts. 10-1 leads to 20-1 and ultimately 30-1.

English 20-1

5 credits

This course continues the academic examination of language and literature while further developing the student's analytic, research and compositional skills. Literary experiences focus on fiction, non-fiction, drama, and poetry in textual and electronic formats.

English 30-1

5 credits

English 30-1 is the culmination of the high school English academic program. Literature examined represents both classical and contemporary authors. Central to this course is the development of confident and competent reading, writing, research and analytic skills that will serve as a critical foundation and bridge to a post-secondary university education.

English 10-2

5 credits

This course is intended to help students achieve success and build confidence in the language arts. 10-2 is the beginning of the series of courses (20-2, 30-2) that provides students with the minimum English requirements for graduation

English 20-2

5 credits

In this course students examine a variety of short stories, essays, poetry, plays and novels. Through literature (textual and electronic), students gain competency and knowledge in terms of practical research and functional communications.

English 30-2

5 credits

English 30-2 completes a high school English program that emphasizes practical communications, research and analytic abilities. This is accomplished through various forms of literature that challenge the student to consider realistic possibilities of self and society in a literate world. 30-2 is an accepted course for vocational and college programs in the trades and technology fields.

FRENCH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

This language program is designed to help students acquire basic communication skills in French using a variety of approaches. Films, music, history, skits, literature, and general French discourse are used in class to help contextualize the language so students can broaden their view of the French language and culture.

French 10-3Y, 20-3Y, 30-3Y

5-credits (each course)

This program is intended for students who have not had previous instruction in French. By the end of French 30-3Y, students will be able to understand and express themselves in basic situations, provided the language they encounter is clear and based on familiar topics and structures. Students will also be able to use the cultural and strategic knowledge they have gained to sustain their communication.

In addition, the intent of this program is to expand students' knowledge of experiences and perceptions of other people and to foster a respect for cultural and linguistic diversity. The study of film, music, literature and media will enhance students' understanding of French culture around the world.

French Language Arts 10-1, 20-1, 30-1

5 credits (each course)

Students who prefer to study their language arts in an immersion program can access these programs through ADLC using technological supports to connect them to their instructor. The courses are studied when the students' timetable allows using a distance education model. FLA 30-1 is a diploma course with a diploma exam that is written upon completion.
